

THE CROOKED ROAD MUSICIAN'S DIRECTORY

As part of our continuing mission to promote the traditional mountain music of Southwest Virginia and unite our community, The Crooked Road: Virginia's Heritage Music Trail is compiling a Crooked Road Musician's Directory. This directory will be hosted on our website, and will be available to everybody.

The Crooked Road Musician's Directory is for professional and semi-professional musicians and bands, as well as amateurs, hobbyists, people looking to join or form bands, or to just hook up with other local pickers for informal jamming.

If you are an individual, please let us know what instrument(s) you play. If you are a band, please give us details about your sound and what makes you unique.

If you teach classes or give lessons in traditional mountain music or dance, we'd like to hear from you, too. Please complete the last question on this form and let us know what classes and/or instrument(s) you teach. Please also list if you teach privately, or for which organization/school you teach.

Thank you for your participation.

Name (performer, group, or band):

---

Address:

---

---

Phone:

---

Website:

---

Performance Style:

---

---

E-Mail:

---

About me / Us:

---

---

---

Type of venues:

---

---

Set-up needs:

---

---

---

Additional info:

---

---

---

---

---

If you teach classes or give lessons in traditional mountain music or dance, we'd like to hear from you. What classes or instrument(s) and style(s) do you teach? Do you teach privately, or for which organization/school do you teach?

---

---

---

---

---

Please mail completed forms to:

The Crooked Road: Virginia's Heritage Music Trail
851 French Moore, Jr. Blvd., Ste.146
Abingdon, VA 24210

Or email to: info@thecrookedroad.org. You may also go to the following link to fill out the form online:

<http://spreadsheets.google.com/viewform?hl=en&formkey=dDMtMy13RmVIWmtqNGhrc0NfdzlyMWc6MA>